

Narration #4

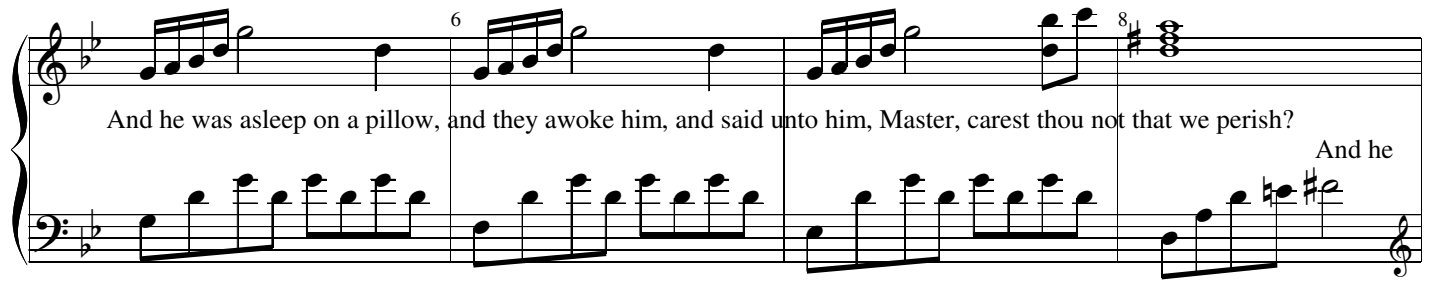

(He Comes Again)

Amy Webb

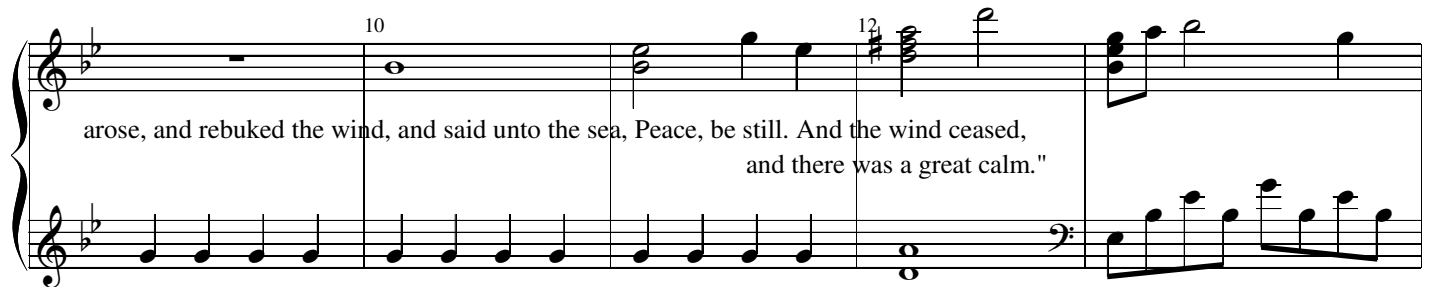

1 2 4

Upon leaving Nazareth, the Lord and His disciples crossed the Sea of Galilee.
"There arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship

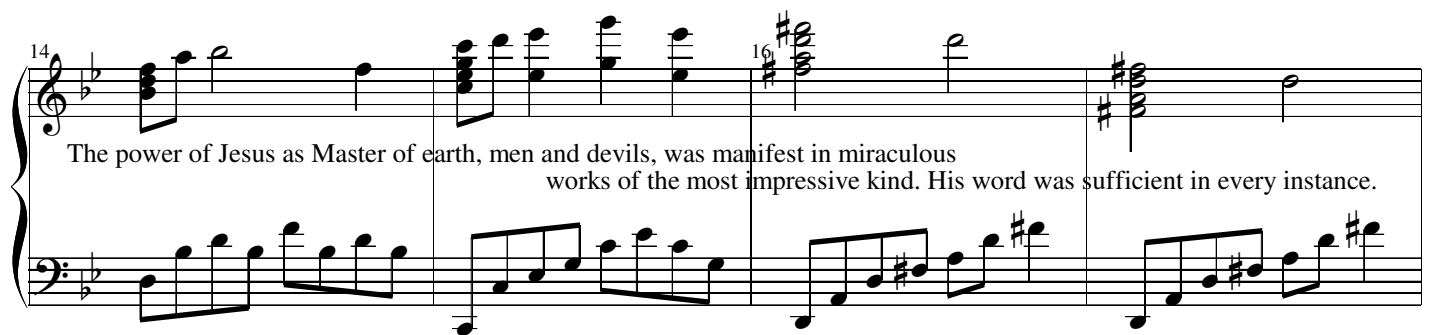

6 8

And he was asleep on a pillow, and they awoke him, and said unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?
And he

arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm."

14 16

The power of Jesus as Master of earth, men and devils, was manifest in miraculous works of the most impressive kind. His word was sufficient in every instance.

18 20 22

To the wind and the waves, the demon-ridden mind of the man possessed, the woman healed amongst the throng, and the daughter of Jairus, He had but to speak and be obeyed. Peace, be still.
